MV Transportation, Inc. Supports Maryland Center for Independent Living

Fairfield, Calif., (December 19, 2011) – Recently MV Transportation, Inc., the largest privately-owned transportation contracting firm in the United States, made a $1000 donation to Maryland non-profit Independence Now, the Center for Independent Living in Montgomery and Prince George's County Maryland.

In line with MV Transportation's mission to provide freedom through mobility is Independence Now's aim to promote independent living and equal access for people with disabilities. Independence Now assists residents of Montgomery and Prince George's Counties to use community services and resources that will enhance their independence

"We are glad to support Independence Now and their very important mission in the Montgomery and Prince George communities," said Carter Pate, MV Transportation CEO. "We look forward to future opportunities to work together to improve independence for people with disabilities."

MV Transportation had a mission to support the communities it serves through donations and volunteer work across North America. MV operates several contracts in the state of Maryland, including paratransit services in Baltimore City for the Maryland Transit Administration (MTA), Charles County Community Services, among others.
